

PRESENTS
COMBATING AML & BANKING FRAUD

About Program

Banking fraudulent activities is increasing rapidly now days in banking sector. The common challenge faced by Bank and Financial Institutions (BFIs) is the various types of frauds that encounter within management and staff to financial and reputational losses by falling prey to fraud incidents. So, prevention of these activities must be followed by the awareness, an on-going effort for financial institutions, especially with new fraud typologies being discovered frequently. The main objective of this program is to educate staffs on fundamental concepts related to fraud including Banking Offence and Preventing Act, 2064 that has more stringent provisions with the imprisonment up to 12 years.

Asset (Money) Laundering Prevention Act, 2064 (ALPA) 2nd Amendment has more stringent provisions with the penalties up to 15 times and imprisonment up to 20 years. Also extra 10 per cent punishment to the officials. Similarly, Nepal Rastra Bank (NRB) has issued directives on Anti Money Laundering and Combating the Financing of Terrorism and Know Your Customer (AML-CFT/KYC). There are serious provisions in the directives including penalties up to NPR 50 million in Banking Sector. So, this program is focused on the regulatory requirements that banks and financial institutions, must comply with in accordance with the various international requirements to combat money laundering, terrorism financing, sanctions and other financial crimes etc.
