

Counterfeit Notes Focusing on IC500 & 1000 currency Notes

With the issuance of notice from the Nepal Rastra Bank (NRB) lifting the ban on circulation of Indian currency notes of 500 and 1000 rupee, the banks now need to be more cautious towards the inflow of the fake currency notes. This program has been designed in order to prevent unauthorized trading of such counterfeit notes.

Trainer's Profile

Mr. Mukul Pradhan
Senior Scientist
National Forensic Science Laboratory

Program Details

Date: 3rd April, 2015
Venue: NBI Hall, Kathmandu.
Time: 2:30pm to 6:00pm

Program Content

- History of Indian currency.
- Fake currency inflow.
- Security concern of Indian currency.
- Circulation of Rs. 500 and Rs. 1000 in Nepal.
- Security features of Indian currency.
- Feature examined with naked eye and hand.
- Features examined with magnifying glass and UV light.
- Clean note policy and mutilated currency.
- Withdrawn series of Indian currency.
- Revision and conclusion.