

PRESENTS FRAUD-RISK AND
GOODWILL APPROACH

Background

In financial sector, processing of important documents is a key issue. As prevention is always better than cure, better processing of such documents is always essential to prevent fraud in initial stage. Study shows that in most of cases, lack of efficiency in handling document/cheque invites major fraud issues in financial sectors. This program deals with several issues including signature verification and currencies verification as well as genuine citizenship proper handling process.
